Jacksonville, FL; 10th March, 2009—Sight & Sound Productions was commissioned by The Player's Club at Sawgrass to provide audiovisual and décor support for the Jacksonville Business Journal's annual Book of Lists party on February 6th. The Book of Lists is the Journal's annual publication recognizing various companies and organizations around Jacksonville.

Over 700 guests attended the event. Spanning three rooms at the TPC Clubhouse, the Book of Lists party featured muted lighting in burnt orange, a smooth jazz band, a plasma tower in the main room, and a mini theatre. Sight & Sound Productions debuted its newest technology at the event—guests posed in front of a green screen and had their picture superimposed onto a background depicting downtown Jacksonville. With the help of a digital printer, the pictures were available instantly for guests to take home.

Professionalism and superior customer service are the foundation of Sight & Sound Productions. The company believes in building solid relationships with its clients backed by strong communication.
